

Feeling Safe at the South Coast & Tablelands

SouthCoast Skillquest

Everyone in Scouts, youth and adults alike, has the right to feel safe and be protected from abuse.

A Scout is respectful, and this applies to all interactions between all participants, staff and Leaders at Hop & Howl Camp.

You do not have to deal with abuse on your own. If you feel unsafe, threatened, or you see/hear something that causes you concern, please speak to a Leader. Your concerns will be taken seriously. The information you provide will be shared with people who can support and protect you.

If you don't know what to do – speak to one of the organisers – Possum (Leanne Senn) or the welfare team who will be wearing pink vests.

If, for any reason, you do not feel the concerns of this nature which you raised at the Hop & Howl Camp have been satisfactorily dealt with, please report your concerns directly to the Child Protection Team at the NSW State Office on 02 9735 9000 or via Child Protection@nsw.scouts.com.au or your parents.
